

RAINED

Contributions on the Stage.

Prohibs. Were Very Enthusiastic.

Nearly Divided on the Issues.

Peoria, Ill., July 2.—The convention of the Illinois Prohibitionists today was a most exciting affair. When the call was made for voluntary contributions, the 1200 delegates went wild with enthusiasm and crowding to the stage they showered their contributions upon the stage. It was a rain of wealth and the chairman and secretary of the committee were compelled to retreat from the stage until it had ended. Almost $5,000 in cash was heaped upon the platform. The committee on platform split in the conferences and two platforms were submitted for the convention for adoption. One touches on all the leading national issues and the other confines itself strictly to prohibition and woman's suffrage. This afternoon the two platforms are being discussed and the debate is a very bitter one. There is some probability that the convention will split on the issues. The nominations of candidates for state offices were made as follows:

Treasurer, John H. Wilson, McLeansboro; clerk of supreme court, Robert H. Hardin, E. St. Louis; superintendent of public instruction, Charles P. Blanchard, president of Wheaton college, trustees University of Illinois—Marie C. Brehm, Chicago; Judge J. O. Cunningham, Urbana; Mrs. Dr. W. J. Akers, Sangamon.

The convention adopted the minority report on platform at 1 o'clock this afternoon. This holds the prohibitionists to the two issues—the liquor question and woman's suffrage. The convention adjourned at 4 o'clock.

IN NEW WORK.

Newspaper Man Will Try His Hand as Hotel Clerk.

Mr. F. R. Currier, who for the past few months has been engaged in newspaper work in this city, has accepted a position as clerk at the Barberton Inn. Mr. Currier is a whole-souled, genial gentleman, who made many friends in Akron, and he possesses the qualities necessary to his new position.

CANAL LANDS

Are Being Viewed by Prominent Officials.

Canal Commissioners H. W. Blackely and Gen. A. T. Wilcox, of Columbus, and Engineer Chas. E. Perkins are in the city. They are appraising the State land that is occupied by private parties. It is upon this appraisal that the rental charged by the State is based.

TO SALT LAKE.

Akron Elks Plan a Nice Trip.

A party of local Elks will attend the National convention of that order in Salt Lake City, Utah. Those who expect to go are: L. S. Pardee, A. J. Rowley, C. J. Miller, Geo. Hemingway, C. D. Reid and Delegate F. W. Runelcker. The party will go to California from the convention and will make a tour of the West.

ATTRACTED BY TALE OF FORTUNE

"Beats all—I'll doubtless be kept busy answering questions for a year," remarked Chief of Police Durkin, Wednesday, as he tossed a letter onto his desk. "Here's a man from Decey, Ind., wanting to know what I know further about that Rudolph Muhler, who died at Barberton, and was probably heir to a fortune in Switzerland."

And then the Chief added that it was always the case—whenever there's a fortune in sight, lawyers and others will be writing from all over the country, wanting "further particulars."

The Decey, Ind., man is named F. B. Woodward, who "knows or knows of, a certain Rudolph Muhler and believes maybe this is the one."

DRIVER

Was Thrown Headlong From a Buggy.

A Loop line car struck a buggy while rounding the corner at Market and Main sts., at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. John Severns, who was driving, was knocked headlong from the buggy and landed on the pavement. The rear wheel of the buggy was smashed. The horse, which is usually high-spirited, moved not a step after its driver had been thrown to the pavement. The car belonged to William Cady.

Large Order For W. & B. Co.

Belting For Big Grain Elevators

Was Secured In Face of Much Competition.

A very large contract for rubber elevator and conveyor belts has been awarded the Whitman & Barnes Manufacturing Co., by the Southern Pacific Terminal Co., for its new grain elevators at Galveston, Texas. The order calls for 11,708 feet of "Hontas" rubber belting, 4 and 6 plies, and weighing approximately 60,000 pounds. The contract was secured in competition with most of the prominent rubber belting manufacturers in the country. The Whitman & Barnes Co. has also secured one of the largest orders for rubber drive belts that has been placed in Massachusetts for a long time—India Rubber World.

William C. Coleman, of Boston, dealer in old and new scrap rubber, though not long established, has succeeded in building up an extensive business. He is not, however, a new man in the trade, having at one time been the purchasing agent for the reclaiming department of The B. F. Goodrich Co., and having held the honorary position of acting secretary and treasurer of the Rubber Reclaimers' association. It was Mr. Coleman who first introduced the standard packing of old rubber boots and shoes to the trade—India Rubber World.

The Pure Gum Specialty Co., of Barberton, is forging ahead rapidly and the plant is growing like the famous bean stalk of the old time fable. Tuesday the company purchased three lots adjoining its property and will erect new buildings soon. Additions have recently been made to the factory and new machinery for the manufacturing of druggists' supplies has been purchased and will be set up within 30 days. Preparations are being made to run the plant with a full force night and day.

Daughter of the Jersey Lily Has Become the Bride of a Wealthy Member of Parliament.

Latest Photograph of Mrs. Langtry.

London, July 2.—The marriage of Miss Jeanne Langtry, daughter of Lily Langtry, to Ian Malcolm, M. P., is one of the topics Americans and others are discussing here. The wedding took place Monday and was a brilliant affair.

The bride's presents were of extraordinary value. King Edward sent a jewel with an autograph letter and the Prince of Wales also sent a gift. The bridegroom's gift was a diamond necklace with diamond pendant.

The bridegroom's parents sent the bride a gorgeous diamond necklace, which is transformable into a tiara. Mrs. Langtry, the bride's mother, gave her a big rossette of diamonds and pearls, set in silver, a complement of house linen and a big check.

The bride is extremely pretty and has been the pet of the best society ever since her debut. She is tall, has
